Customer Reviews

Good points and perspectives... I love the honesty and openness in which the author goes through the book. There are some very helpful tips and instructions. However, some of the perspective and rules vary from one Rasta to another.

Great beginner book on the road being a rasta, it could have been a little better if they went into detail about the everyday life and rituals of a rasta.

Very informative, I just wish it had more info in it. The information was great but I felt it could have had more. Jah bless

A very basic outline of the Rasta way of life but it lacks history and the reasons why rastas believe what they believe.

This author needs to proofread, This is fluff reading, not a serious work on Rastafari. It seems like a hastily put together book. Some concepts are not accurate.

Rasta is not a conversion its an origin. Therefore one do not become Rasta but is Rasta from birth.
