The age is listed as 9 - 12 but it is too easy for that age range. The numbers of dots in the puzzles range from 28 to 32. Very easy for younger children to enjoy. There are 30 dot to dot puzzles. With one puzzle per page so the puzzle is good size on one page. At the bottom of each page there is the name of the dinosaur and a brief fact about that dinosaur. It is printed on quality paper to allow for erasing mistakes. The pages are white so they could be colored once the puzzle is done.

He loves dinosaurs and he was so excited that he could connect the dots and build one himself. He is 7 but really enjoyed this Great condition, my preschooler LOVED it! We have a number chart to 100 on the wall and he uses it to do dot-to-dots!

Great for any dinosaur loving child. And other than the first page it isn't filled with a bunch of nonsense.

This is a good book for the price. My 5 year old really likes it.

Was given as a gift to someone.
